

BEEES AND FLOWERS

Where are the bumble bees hiding?

	3	2	1	2	2	3	0	3	0	4
4
1
3
0
3
2
3
1
1
2

Remember:

- Each flower attracts only one bee, horizontally or vertically.
- No bees can occupy a space next to one another, in any direction.
- The number of bees which appears in each row and column is indicated by the number value written at the end of each row and column.

One bee has been placed for you to start you off.