

Kitchen Facts!

Discuss these statements with your family members or friends and decide if they are always or sometimes or never TRUE?

The oven door can have just 1 right angle.	I start cooking at 4 o'clock. I finish cooking 60 minutes later. So I finish cooking at 6 o'clock.
2 packets of biscuits cost €2. This is the same as 3 packets for €3.	1L of water weighs the same as 1L of washing up liquid soap.
50 olives is the same as 5 groups of ten olives.	All preservatives come in a 3d shape container in the form of a cylinder.
A cake takes 1 hour to bake. This is equal to 65 minutes.	1kg of apples is cheaper than 1kg of oranges.
Two 500ml cartons of milk are equal to 1 litre carton of milk.	I have 8 forks, 8 knives, 8 spoons and 8 teaspoons. The total is more than 30 cutlery pieces.
According to the recipe, muffins take 30 minutes to bake at a temperature of 180°. Mum decides to bake muffins at 360° so muffins will take 60minutes to bake.	The maximum number of people sitting around the kitchen table is always an even number.